Why participate in the Jewish Festival?

1. It's fun!
2. Whatever area in which you volunteer to work a shift, you will have fun and meet people.
3. This is our largest annual fundraiser, so all proceeds go toward our operating budget.
4. You can make egg creams, pastrami sandwiches, bagels and lox. You can sell knishes or falafel or baked goods.
5. Or you can sell tickets, help with parking, clear tables, assist in the education rooms, or the kids zone.
6. Help bag up baked goods and other food items being sold at the festival. Call the Temple office for details.
7. Working a shift still leaves time to enjoy all the wonderful food, music, and exhibits.
8. Did I mention that this is all fun?
9. Can't do any of the above? Then simply attend the festival - and bring your friends!
10. Check out the artisans selling their wares in the lobby. You never know what treasure you might find.

11. Out of town that day but still want to help? Join the Friends of the Festival by sending in a check for $100 or more, and buy Raffle tickets - see our website to learn more, at www.gsojfest.org

12. This is a great opportunity to reach out to our larger community and share our culture.

13. And it's FUN!

In all seriousness, we need your help and participation to whatever extent you are able. A dedicated group of people has been working all year to make this event a success and it is up to the rest of us to chip in and fill all the volunteer spots. Please visit our website to access the signup genius to volunteer. We can't do this without you!

As always, I thank you for the opportunity to serve the Temple. Please don't hesitate to call or email me, or stop to chat when you see me. You are each an important part of this sacred community and I hope you will share your thoughts with me. Thank you!

See you all on Sunday, November 3!

This and That:*The Turtle - Sticking His Neck Out

Rosh Hashanah, the first of the ten days known as the Yamim Noraim, the "Days of Awe." This period is called in Hebrew - Aseret y'mey t'shuvah – the days of repentance.

This time of year, in terms of Judaism, is a time of renewal. It is a time for looking back, to be sure, and to acknowledge our shortcomings and deficiencies. But it is also a time for looking forward, to recognizing the enormous potential for excellence which we can still achieve, and to assessing the kind of effort such excellence requires.

A story is told of a former President of Harvard University, who kept among other objects on his desk a little model of a turtle under which was an unforgettable inscription. The statement proclaimed, "Consider the turtle. He makes progress only when he sticks his neck out".

That turtle can teach a very important lesson for leaders of any institution like ours which clings to an imperishable faith in the goodness of people and of God, and declares unconditional war on injustice, hypocrisy and corruption wherever it may be found. The turtle discomforts us with the fact that we are too often afraid to take risks for a deserving cause. We hesitate to stick out our necks for what we believe. But unless leaders do challenge the prevailing norms of what can and cannot be done, and occasionally challenge the existing standard of performance, they will never succeed.

In every generation, in every social circle, in every group--indeed in every congregation, there must be leaders who are willing to defend their ideas and ideals, even if the tide of public sentiment runs counter to their better judgment. It requires little leadership to follow the direction the crowd has chosen. It requires more than a little to CHANGE the direction of the crowd they are leading.

Ten Days for Improvement:

That takes vision and persistence and determination. And that is why real leadership is such a difficult and demanding task. That is the only quality of performance by which meaningful progress can be measured and the wellbeing of a people ensured.

These are ten days of self-examination which we Jews undertake both as individuals and as a people. During this time, we are to examine our relationships with ourselves, with others and with God. This is the ultimate self-help ritual of improving one's ethical behavior.

The next time you visit Barnes and Noble, look at how many shelves contain self-help books. Then consider how long we as Jews have been doing year after year this type of self-examination. However, after these ten days, it is time for us to go out and build our Sukkah! It is as though Jewish tradition is telling us that too much self-examination can lead to ethical paralysis!

So as we finish the High Holy days on Yom Kippur, I hope that you will emerge refreshed, ready to build your "sukkah," ready to build and strengthen relationships with your family, friends, this congregation and community and with God.

On another note:

We as rabbis and as leaders of this congregation are committed to ensuring the safety of all of our congregation! This is especially true when our children are in the building. You have been asked to help us with a generous donation to offset the additional $25,000 that we will be spending on security this year. The bottom line is that this place is and will be a place of safety for all who enter it! However, we really need your help. If you have not given extra for this purpose, please do so and please give generously!

"It is not your duty to complete the work. Not up to you to finish it. But neither are you free to desist from it." (The Ethics of the Fathers, 2:21)

—Rabbi Fred Guttman

V'samachta b'chagecha...v'hayita ach same-ach. Enjoy your festival...may you have nothing but joy. (Deuteronomy 16:14-15)

Languages tell you a lot about a people. You might have heard that languages spoken by those who live in cold climates have dozens of synonyms for snow. In warmer climates, we would not be surprised if there are nuanced ways to talk about fish, fruit, or sand.

Hebrew has well over a dozen ways to say "happiness." One of the seven blessings traditionally recited at a wedding includes eight of these synonyms in rapid succession.

What does this tell us about our people that we have so many ways of indicating happiness?

It cannot be that we have only known satisfaction and joy. Our history seems to contain too many rough moments for this to be the case.

Why so many words for joy?

Children anticipate special moments in their lives. I have seen kids on their birthdays so happy just to receive something with wrapping paper. Their unbridled joy is evident even before they remove the paper to see what is inside. What a great lesson about anticipation, acknowledgment, joy, and gratitude.

As modern Jews, we have a choice as to how to view our tradition and our community. We can see these moments as a burden. Or, we can see them as a gift. The lesson that we take from Hebrew is: "What you have is a gift!" Psalm 100 takes it one step farther, reminding us to "Serve God with joy!"

We will have many opportunities to gather and to celebrate throughout this month. October of this year contains nearly all of the fall holidays, with only the start of Rosh Hashanah happening in September. How will you mark these times and see them as times of joy?

Remember, as holy as Yom Kippur is, most are surprised to learn that our ancient Sages saw it as one of the happiest days of the year! It is followed only 5 days later by Sukkot which was known by the nickname "the season of our joy." And then there is Simchat Torah, which literally means "Rejoicing With Torah," the day that we simultaneously finish the annual reading of the Torah and immediately start again from the beginning. Our festivals truly are gifts!

There is one festival which does not appear in the Torah but which our community now creates annually. This, of course, is Temple's Jewish Festival, which will happen early next month on Sunday, November 3rd. Thousands attend, both from within and beyond the Jewish community. In order to make this a reality, hundreds from Temple Emanuel need to step forward as volunteer leaders. If you haven't yet signed up to do so, I ask you to do your part. Your presence is invaluable, as are your skills. Fill that day, and every day we are blessed to be together, with happiness and joy.

- Rabbi Andy Koren

7TH & 8TH GRADERS WHITE WATER RAFTING & HAVING A BLAST!

Each year we teach our students about tzedekah and throughout the year they are encouraged to bring some extra change to school on Shabbat. It is always a nice surprise when we count the change in May. It is usually at that point in the year that we choose an organization to support with our tzedekah.

This year however, we already decided to adopt the IRC as the recipient of our collected funds. The Interactive Resource Center's mission is to end homelessness. We will focus on teaching the preschool children about the meaning of having a home and how our change will help people who are in need of homes. Each classroom will create a tzedekah box that is shaped like a house. This way the children will have a nice visual reminder of the good that they are doing.

Thank you very much to Rodna Hurewitz for ensuring that the preschool has a new refrigerator. The gift is truly appreciated.

We will start with a pre-neg followed by a Family friendly Shabbat celebration at 6:00. At 6:30 a child friendly dinner will be served.

Please let me know if you are joining us so I can be sure to have enough food! Looking forward to a great evening together.

SAVE THE DATE!

Sunday | November 3, 2019 | 11:00 AM - 5:00 PM

The Temple Emanuel Jewish Festival is our opportunity to share our Temple, our culture and our warmth with the community.

To assure a successful event your support and help is needed.

Here is how you can get involved:

Volunteer:

On the day of the Festival, more than 300 volunteers are needed. Please sign up for one or two shifts, or perhaps a full day of volunteering. Opportunities are available for a variety of indoor and outdoor positions. A Sign-up Genius link can be found on the Jewish Festival website.

Buy and Sell Raffle Tickets:

This year the Festival is running a 50/50 raffle. Tickets are $10 each. The more tickets we sell the larger the prize! Tickets are available for purchase on-line, in the Temple office or on Sunday mornings during Religious School. Please pick up a pack for yourself and one to sell.

Become a Friend of the Festival:

Follow the link on the website to make your $100 tax-deductible donation to support this wonderful event highlighting Jewish culture. Donors giving $100 or more will be listed as 'Friends of the Festival' on the website and the Festival program.

Our Festival is a success because our congregation steps up and gets involved. Please take a few minutes to follow the links, share Facebook links publicizing the festival and talk about the event to neighbors, co-workers, family and friends.

It is a day to spotlight Temple Emanuel!

Stay up to date on all things Jewish Festival by following the "Greensboro Jewish Festival" on Facebook or checking out our website at www.gsojfest.org.

Once again the Social Action Committee partnered with Brotherhood to build a wheelchair ramp for a needy member of our greater community. A lot of hard work and skilled labor contributed to constructing our fourth ramp in consecutive years.

Thursday | October 17 | 5:30 PM

Thursday | October 31 | 5:30 PM

The Immigration committee is working on a joint social action project with our friends at Daystar Church. Stay tuned for details.

Temple Emanuel is hosting the annual Jewish Community Blood Drive on November 10, from 10:00am to 3:00pm. We need your help as volunteers and as donors. Please contact Brenda at the Temple office if you can do either of these important mitzvahs.

Keep in mind that we will be serving food (as we do each month) to the needy for "Hot Dish and Hope." This is one of our favorite family-friendly monthly mitzvahs. Contact Kris Aronson or Brenda Henley for details.

And... please join us for social action "breakout sessions" on Yom Kippur afternoon.

Greetings from the Chesed Committee!

Our Temple's Chesed Committee met on September 16 to discuss the many things that we have been doing in the past few weeks. Our usual meetings are during the day, but we found that some of the members prefer an evening meeting as they work during the day or have other commitments. I will stagger our meetings moving forward.

First, a big thank you to our members, as we could not do what we do without them! They include; Allison Padulsky, Amy Gers, Sharon Moran, Diana McCloud, Carol Simons, Judi Magier, Barbara Shyloski, Sarah Sagerdahl, Larry Mars, Wendy Lewensohn and Annette Rachlin.

Our Mitzvah's include the following:

- ☆ Delivering food to members that have had a recent death in the family, who are older and do not cook that much, or are recovering from surgery
- ☆ Having a lawn mowed
- ☆ Taking clothing, magazines and personal items to those in need.

- ☆ Making phone calls and visits to those in our Temple family that do not get out as much as they would like.

New to the Temple? Please come to a meeting or see how to become involved by contacting me at 1reneemiller@gmail.com or (336) 253-0088. You may also reach out to Brenda Henley in the Temple office at (336) 292-7899.

If you are interested or know someone who might benefit from a weekly call, visit, or one of our many Mitzvah's please let us know! We do not share names and work behind the scenes with dignity and anonymity!

We also benefit from donations to our Chesed Fund! This money goes directly to the work we do! Please consider honoring someone today with a monetary donation in their name! Have you performed a Mitzvah lately?

L'Shalom!

—Renee Miller

Chair, Chesed Committee

Sisterhood wishes the entire Temple Emanuel community Shana Tova and that we may all be inscribed and sealed in the book of life.

We are looking forward to an exciting year of renewing friendships and community with events like the Sisterhood Book Club and Ladies Who Lunch, as well as programs like a winery tour and Krav Maga demonstration.

We continue to need help working the Sisterhood Gift Shop; it's a year-round opportunity to support our temple and community by staffing the Gift Shop on Sunday mornings during Religious School (from 9:30 to noon). Volunteer for a month or a week at a time! It's a way to help Sisterhood and help the entire Temple Emanuel community. Volunteers also needed for the afternoon Gift Shop shift for the Jewish Festival on November 3.

Sisterhood is a diverse group of women of different ages and diverse backgrounds who come together to support Temple Emanuel and the community with tikkun olam. To be a part of the vibrant group, please contact Erica Levy-Ringel (ericagail@gmail.com) or Susan Ross (susanross1960@gmail.com) today.

Sisterhood Co-Presidents

The Brotherhood would like to wish everyone a happy, healthy and prosperous L'Shanah Tovah!

This is probably our busiest time of the year, so we've got several opportunities for folks to get involved. Following the High Holidays, we will gather to set up the sukkah in the morning of Sunday 10/13. That's always a good time of teamwork, camaraderie and unity...and the donuts and coffee only add to the excitement and fun! There's also possible talk of the Brotherhood grilling kosher hot dogs for the Sukkot dinner that evening...along with all the other great food! Then we'll take down the sukkah at the end of the month, on 10/27.

We enjoyed an awesome kickoff party at the Maaravi home, starting our fall calendar off with a bang! We then teamed up with Greensboro Housing Solutions for our annual ramp-build project, one of our many mitzvahs throughout the year. And our Bromeo dinners have become the talk of the temple as our numbers seem to swell each month. Those are always a good time for fun, fellowship and the exchanging of ideas.

We've got an exciting year ahead with hot dog sales, serving our monthly spaghetti dinner at Greensboro Urban Ministry, our sports breakfast in January, our Super Bowl party in February and our golf tournament in June just to name a few...So look for us at our meetings on the last Sunday of the month. Just let us know how you like your bagel...

Mission Statement

Temple Emanuel strives to be a place of Keruv, of closeness to God and Jewish culture. Temple Emanuel's mission is to bring its congregants closer to: Tikkun Olam – The commitment to repair God's world through the pursuit of justice; Tikkun Nefesh – Personal and spiritual growth as a Jew and as a human being; Talmud Torah – Life-long study of Torah and of Jewish history and tradition; Am Yisrael – The Jewish people, in Greensboro, the United States, Israel, and worldwide; Eretz Yisrael – The land, people, and state of Israel; Mishpacha – A sense of extended family through a warm and supportive atmosphere and Reform Judaism – Its principles and values.

Diversity and Inclusivity Statement

Temple Emanuel is committed to inclusivity: Hachnasat Orchim (Hospitality) means welcoming people of different cultural backgrounds, races, nationalities, sexual orientations, genders, gender identities, gender expressions, physical and mental abilities, and ages. We recognize Jewish identity from both matrilineal and patrilineal descent. Our Rabbis are open to officiating at Jewish ceremonies for interfaith marriages. Appreciating the critical role played by non-Jewish parents in the upbringing of Jewish children, we encourage full participation in congregational and religious life by interfaith families.
